

PAIGE JOHNSTON

john3162@msu.edu

@Johnston1st

EDUCATION

Master's Degree in Educational Technology | Michigan State University

AUGUST 2018

Bachelor of Arts in Elementary Education | Michigan State University

MAY 2014

EXPERIENCE

1st Grade Teacher | Harvest Elementary School, Saline, MI

MAY 2015-PRESENT

- Engage a class of 24 students in a variety of authentic and engaging learning experiences
- Differentiate instruction and adapted lessons for a range of student abilities based on testing results and other empirical data

Teacher Intern | Donelson Hills Elementary School, Waterford, MI

AUGUST 2014-MAY 2015

- Taught and planned all subject areas for 12 weeks; co-taught and co-planned all subject areas during fall semester
- Utilized digital instruction by creating over 30 Smart Board lessons and incorporating computers and iPads into teaching

Fellow | Urban Immersion Fellowship, Detroit, MI

JUNE 2014-AUGUST 2014

- Taught daily literacy and mathematics lessons in English and Spanish to bilingual students ages 5-7 years old
- Built foundational skills over seven weeks through math and literacy games and activities

SKILLS

- Curriculum Knowledge: Lucy Calkins, Project Lead the Way, Everyday Math, Phonics for Reading, Fountas and Pinnell
- Effective Classroom Management
- Parent Communication
- Collaboration with colleagues
- Proficient in Weebly, SeeSaw, Educreations, Google Drive Applications, Book Creator,

ACCOMPLISHMENTS

- Saline Area Schools Symposium, Presenter, 2017
- Study of Early Literacy (SOEL), Member, 2016-2017
- Global Education Cohort, Member, 2010-2014
- Dean's List, 2010-2014